CHARLES BOULOS SENTENCED A YEAR TO THE WORK HOUSE.

Would Make No Promise That He Will Keep Store in Uniontown Closed in the Future.

PATTON BREACH OF PROMISE

In Which Miss Anna Zundell Was Awarded $1,500 Damages Was Argued This Morning—Patton Routine of Courts.

UNIONTOWN, Aug. 13.—Charles Boulos, possibly the best known and most widely advertised man in Uniontown, outside of J. V. Thompson, has come to grief at last. For the past year or more Boulos has been one of the most determined antagonists of the Sabbath Observance Association, and, while his friends say he has been persecuted and not prosecuted by officers of that association and the District Attorney, he has always been a hard fighter. At the June term of court, however, he was convicted of conspiracy for importing clerks from other points to work in his store on Sunday and hustling them off before the next morning, in order that prosecutions against them could not be brought. At the same time he was convicted of permitting gambling on the premises. This morning he was called for sentence. He refused to promise the court he would close his store on Sunday, but was willing to close it if all the other merchants would do likewise. Attorney Dumbauld made no avail. Boulos was fined $250 and sentenced six months to the workhouse on each charge. As the sentences do not run concurrently, Boulos must spend a year in the Allegheny county institution.

Attorney Dumbauld called the attention of the court to the alleged prosecution of Boulos, in the manner by which illegal and unnecessary expense were piled upon him by the Sabbatharians and District Attorney Hudson, the court didn't place much importance in these remarks, however. It is believed by those intimate with the case that Boulos' sentence may be modified if he will agree to close his store on Sundays.

The breach of promise suit of Miss Anna Zundell against Bela W. Patton of Washington township, wherein the plaintiff was awarded $1,500 damages, was argued this morning. Patton is seeking a new trial.

In the case of Nathan O. Phillips against Anna M. Davis, a citation was made directing that a docket be executed in favor of Phillips or payment of a balance of the purchase money. This is a dispute over 15 acres of land in Redstone township which was sold to Phillips at a Sheriff's sale.

Judgment was given the defendant in the suit of Ann Hutchinson against Martha B. and James A. Barnes. This is a dispute of some land near Hopwood.

Elizabeth Heath this morning was granted a divorce from her husband, Samuel Heath.

The Rt. Rev. J. Regis Canevin, Bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese of the Catholic Church, has been granted the privilege of mortgaging St. Joseph's Church at Contingent for the benefit of the congregation.

The Mt. Lebanon Baptist congregation of Brownsville has been granted the privilege of mortgaging its property, proceeds for the building fund.

QUIET LABOR DAY.

No Preparations Made for the Observation of the Day in This Section and No Holiday Expected.

B. & O. PAY DAY

Will Occur on Wednesday and Large Amount of Cash is to Be Distributed.

From all indications it will be a quiet Labor Day in Fayette county this year. The labor men have made no preparations for the celebration of the day, and it is believed that it will pass with all the men at their work. The men are anxious to make every day possible, and a layoff is not wanted by them unless they are going on vacations. One day as a rule only enables the various plants and the men do not have but a few brief hours to enjoy themselves.

The total lack of amusement on the day, too, would afford no pleasure. So far as is known, there will be no celebration of any great extent in Western Pennsylvania, even Pittsburgh, this year having dropped out of the observance of the day.

Butler Goes Through.

The Butler West Penn team passed through town this morning on its way to Fairmont.

The team was scheduled at Fairmont yesterday but missed their connections, and did not start until this morning.

Retail Clerks Have Organized.

The retail clerks of Uniontown have formed an organization and will make demands from their employers.

The clerks will likely ask for an advance in wages and also a uniform closing hour.

The Farmer—As long as we two travel this road together, I guess we won't complain of hard times.

LOCAL EFFECT

Of the Telegraphers' Strike Has Been Experienced in Getting the Pittsburgh Office.

The strike of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, which has now spread to all parts of the country, has made itself felt in Connellsville, although the Western Union and postal operators here will not go out.

All messages at both offices are being accepted subject to delay.

The Pittsburgh strikers are apparently the easiest for the present at least, for time is being experienced in clearing up local business.

The Western Union seems to be in worse shape than the Postal.

Miss Clara B. Anthony, manager of the Western Union office here, states that morning that she was learning up all business received as rapidly as possible.

It is hard, however, to get Pittsburghing on the wire. Under ordinary circumstances an operator will handle but two or three local wires, and since the strike has been宣言, it is evident that one man has been assigned to a much larger amount of business. Every few hours accumulated business is being cleared up.

"Glad you honor," admitted Alex.

"Get $1,500."

"The borough owes me more than that," explained the prisoner.

"Guess we'll have to see the borough then," said the Burgess. "Forty-eight hours."

Mike Slater of New Salem was given 72 hours for being drunk and using profane language. A怒 was found on Mike's person. Sam Hollie of Wheeling took 18 hours for being drunk.

Thomas Shippman appeared with a badly battered countenance, which he blamed on former Officer Thomas Mullin. He admitted being drunk and was given 48 hours.

As a consequence of the strike the telephone companies are doing an extensive business. Local business men are using the telephone rather than run the risk of delays to messages sent by telegraph. Even when these are received at Pittsburgh, the messenger boys' strike is able to cause a great delay in delivery.

ADVERTISING.
THE DAILY COURIER has done the circuit of newspaper advertising in Fayette County and it is better distributed for the general advertiser than is any paper that can be had.

THE ST. LOUIS COTTON CO. has the seventh day for the daily edition. It speaks for itself. It is a well located paper with a full telegraphic connection and will do its best to do justice to the Sunday Journal.

THE DAILY COURIER is one of the few papers of the country to have a large and one of the newest weeklies in Fayette County.

TO ELIMINATE BEER.

At Christenings Suggested to Prevent

Fierce Fights.

Uniontown Herald

If arguments count for anything there may be some decided steps with in the near future toward the elimination of liquid refreshments at weddings and christenings of the foreigners in this country. It is believed the court should add some new regulations to the pros and cons in some other way prohibit the sale of so much beer to the foreigners on such occasions since they nearly always end in carousals and law breaking. It is no uncommon thing for a company to deliver beer by the wagon load to the scenes of these festivities.

Under present arrangements each company furnishing beer to any of these jubilees is obliged to furnish a special officer to keep peace. This in many instances has a tendency to bring about the desired results and save trouble. On other occasions however one man is power less among so many foreigners and the more fact of him trying to keep order makes the matter even worse. The trouble always occurs after the beer begins to operate usually after the midnight hour. If the supply of refreshments were cut down to the minimum and then all festivities break up at midnight here is no doubt that there would be far less trouble.

The Colored School of Industry Councilbluff News

There is logic in the project of the men who have taken steps toward establishing here a Correspondence School of Industry for young men and women of the negro race. It has passed the experimental stage in Pittsburgh and is to be removed to a commodious new building in order to be in the center of its largest field of operation. The school is not for the purpose of fitting the colored race for the higher professions in which they could not make money in his action, but for industrial work in which they have proven themselves most fitted and in which they can be better fitting them selves secure higher pay.

ESPERANTISTS.

Great Gathering of Them in England Commencing Today

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(Special)—The great congress of Esperantists which is in session at Cambridge is the largest gathering of its kind ever held. The attendance at the formal opening yesterday exceeded 1,500 delegates and this number was considerably increased by many new arrivals today. The visitors have come from a score of different countries, including the United States Canada Mexico Paraguay several of the countries of South America and all parts of Europe.

The proceedings of the congress are conducted entirely in the Esperanto language. In addition the now so-called universal tongue is employed in making speeches or singing the national airs of the different countries and in the production of acts from well known plays.

APPLE GROWERS.

Delegates From Every Section Open Congress at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 13.—(Special)—With members present from many sections of the country the American Apple Growers Congress began its fifth annual meeting in this city today with headquarters at the South Hotel. Henry M. Dunlap of Savoy Hills is President of the Congress and T. C. Wilson of Hannibal Mo. Secretary.

Among the subjects to receive attention during the two days in Congress in session are the following: San Jose scale advantages of local organization the transportation problem control of apple diseases protecting orchards from spring frost, advisability of spraying in cases of total failure, advantages of bulk shipments and foreign markets.

CROPS ALL IN.

They Were Not Big in Fayette County This Year—Old Prices Are High

The farmers of Fayette county have all their crops in and it is a source of relief to them. Wheat was more than a month late and oats were also late. The corn crop got a bad start but of late it has been doing now. Timbits was hurt by the wet weather just at the time of cutting.

Old corn and oats now command high prices. This is just due to the high stocks and small shipments from the interior farmers being unwilling to part with their holdings owing to the poor outlook. As a result oats are bringing over 10 cents more than a year ago while corn is about 1 cent a bushel higher. With prime corn selling at over 60 cents and mill feed at over $2 per ton it is contended that it naturally follows that choice old hogs easily worth $2.22.

Good timbits hay was selling at this time one year ago at $10 or approximately $3 a ton less it is now not obtainable and the difference is so great that it warrants apprehension of continuation of high prices until the crop of 1908 is marketed.

And further say that not JAS. H. DRISCOLL.

SUITS FOR $1,000.

Damages Alleged to Have Been Received in a Fight

Rebecca Massmore of Uniontown had her attorney A. D. Boyd prepare and file a statement of claim in a suit where she says $1,000 damages from Edgar Hutchinson.

This comes out of a scrap on July 27 of this year. Plaintiff alleges that the defendant assaulted her by striking her over the eyes with his fist, knocking her down, spraining her ankle and otherwise giving injury to her. She says she has been unable to do much since and has been obliged to pay out considerable money for doctor bills.

The charges result from the destruction of the Allegheny, which was burned at sea July 17 last when the lives of 61 persons were endangered

ENDED IN A DISPUTE.

Dawson and Smithton Have Wrangle on Field Yesterday Afternoon.

IMPRISE ROUGHLY HANDLED

By Members of the Team and Some Dawson Citizens Saved Him From Harm—Game Was Fine One Up to a Fifth Inning.

WILSON Aug 13.—The Dawson team game on the now Dawson vs. Alonso, afternoon came to an finish at the close of the second inning. The two teams had a series of three games for the championship of the Young Valley. It was the second game of the set. Dawson won the first at Smithton by a score of 1 to 2. The Smithton players did not appear to want to play Monday as a few complained about our rough grounds. The grounds were not in the best of condition, as the first few days the rains kept them so wet they could not be worked. But as to Smithton it was just as bad in this respect as to Dawson. It was four o'clock when the game started, with Ringer and James the opposing pitchers. It was a beauty of a game up until the fifth inning the score being a tie 1 to 1.

In the sixth the Smithton team scored four runs and Dawson drew a blank.

The seventh began with one more run for Smithton, or a total of six runs to Dawson's one lone tally, then came the last half of the seventh when with two men down the home boys landed on bases and would have landed a clean victory had not Davis an um-pire from Fitz Henry given such a rotten decision at home plate in calling McLoughlin out, while he was assisted by uninterested people to be safe. The score made Dawson 5, Smithton 6 with Dawson having a runner on third and two men out. No sooner had Davis made the decision than the crowd turned to word to the umpire who was handled very roughly for a few moments. Quiet action on the part of the visiting team and a few Dawson citizens saved him from his fate. The other trophy matches will be shot tomorrow.

The home team would not play the game out and so it ended it to Smithton 9 to 8. Now if they claim the championship of the South Valley on these results we leave this to the public to decide. We best them on what they claim to be the best grounds in the country on their own home grounds. The Dawson team claim that they did show the white feather here. We think we can now by right claim the championship of the Young Valley. We also think that Ringer made a great record when he held them to one hit and struck out 14 men in the first game it is added.

DROPPED ANOTHER.

The Orphans Went Down Before Clarkburg 3 to 2 Yesterday Afternoon

The Orphans dropped another game yesterday afternoon at Clarkburg. They started scoring too late with a run in the ninth inning and one in the second. Clarkburg scored in the first third and fourth. We kept Clarkburg's six hits from doing damage in the run getting the 21 in pitched to us. Councilor and Clarkburg found time for eight hits. Lower struck out one of the Councilor batsmen. The same teams play again at Clarkburg.

At Scottdale we had an afternoon.

Scottdale won from Greensburg in a well played game 7 to 2. Ending panned for Greensburg and Club for Earle's boys. The latter allowed Greensburg's heavy hits four hits while Scottdale collected seven of Earling. The same teams play again today.

The Fairmont Butler game was called off owing to the failure of the latter team to arrive in time.

A double header will be played today.

HAY-RINGLER REUNION

It Was Very Largely Attended at Ohiopyle on Sunday.

HAD BIG DINNER IN THE OPEN.

There Were Forty Children, Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren of Mrs. Sarah Ringler Present at the Festivities.

The Hay-Ringler reunion at Ohiopyle Falls last Sunday far exceeded the expectations of the inception both as to attendance and enthusiasm. Forty of the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the oldest living member of the families, Mrs. Sarah Ringler, were present on the occasion. There had been no regular program for the affairs arranged and when the party arrived at the Falls it was taken into the grounds surrounding the Ferncliff hotel at that place. Trouble was had in finding a place that would suitably seat 40 people in the open, but finally a vacant refreshment booth was located and the assemblage were soon gathered around the festal board. Everything good to eat was on the menu, and chicken was there in abundance.

After a good dinner some of the party strolled out to Lover's Leap, while others of the younger set, picked up a ball team and had a "great" game. Three innings were played and the score was 8 to 10. It is hard to tell how many runs would have been made had the official scorer consented to act for the balance of the six innings. This he refused to do. After the half game, a foot race was run and out of a total of 16 starters Lloyd Shaw proved himself the speediest. A ladies' race was postponed owing to the extreme heat.

Three counties were represented in the gathering, namely Westmoreland, Allegheny and Fayette. During the afternoon a Secretary was elected and it was decided to have a gathering of this kind each year. Those present were Mrs. Sarah Ringler, James Ringler, Donegal, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ringler and daughter Eva, Mrs. Gertrude Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ringler and daughter of McKeesport; Fremont Ringler of Wilson, Pa.; Jonathan Hay of Pittsburgh; Harmon Hay and son Robert, Miss Helen Hayes, Mrs. Sarah Barnhart, Misses Beulah, Cora, Myrtle and Lottie Hartman; George Hartman, New Haven, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Hay and daughters Laura and Lettie, and Stewart Ringler, Connellsville; Mrs. Dr. Berger, Dravosburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ringler and children, and Albert Kurtz, Scottsdale; Lloyd Shaw, Connellsville; Harry Ringler, Homestead; Wm. J. Miller and daughter Myrtle Margaret, Duquesne.

UNKNOWN BURIED.

Had Papers in Clothes That Might Identify Him as Thomas Murphy or Joseph Meyer.

ROCKWOOD, Aug. 13.—[Special.] An unknown man whose name is supposed to be Thomas Murphy or Joseph Meyer, was struck and killed by a train about a mile east of here early Saturday morning. The body was most horribly mangled, both legs having been cut off and one arm torn off. It seems that he had been dragged along the track for some distance, as all his clothing were torn from his body.

The body was brought here and taken to the undertaking establishment of Jacob Snyder, where it was prepared for burial. It was later interred in the potter's field.

BAN ON CROQUET

And Baseball in Public Park at Confluence Has Been placed by Burgess Humbert.

CONFLUENCE, Aug. 13.—[Special.] Burgess A. R. Humbert issued orders today that all ball and croquet playing is to cease in the Public Park and the question has come up why cannot children make use of the park? The park has been a place of amusement for young and old and many an innocent game has been played on the park grounds, but that is a thing of the past.

The people in general regret that such action was taken. It was reported that the order was to be tested in the courts.

Potter Not to Quit.

A rumor to the effect that George L. Potter would resign as Third Vice President of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad was denied today by President Oscar G. Murray, as well as by Mr. Potter himself.

Stauffer Sunday School Picnic.
The Stauffer school at Stauffer held its 30th annual picnic at Oxford Park on Saturday.

Sunday Sellers Fined.

The usual Monday morning prosecutions against Sunday sellers in Uniontown were brought, 19 offenders paying fines.

Politics and Politicians.

Mark Butler, former United States Senator from North Carolina, has come out for President Roosevelt for a third term.

Major John C. Hemphill is out for the seat of United States Senator Latimer of South Carolina. Major Hemphill belongs to an old South Carolina family and is known as a scholar and an orator of rare attainments.

The Brooklyn Democratic Club has called a conference of Democratic Governors to meet at Brighton Beach the latter part of this month to consider "Encroachments of the Federal Government on the powers of the States."

Ex-Senator Carmack of Tennessee does not take kindly to the suggestion of some of his friends that he should become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Vice President. He says he doesn't want the job.

United States District Judge Landis, who imposed the enormous $29,000,000 fine upon the Standard Oil Company, is now mentioned as a possible candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Illinois.

Carl E. Kuehne, former law partner of Leslie M. Shaw, is one of the latest gubernatorial candidates to appear in the Iowa campaign. While he has not formally announced his candidacy his political friends declare he will be in the race.

Of the seven men whose names are now most prominently mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for the Presidency, six are identified with Federal office life at the present time. And the seventh, Leslie M. Shaw, only recently retired from the President's official family.

Winston Churchill, the novelist, who has entered politics and who was a candidate for Governor of New Hampshire last year, has developed strong political convictions, and his friends expect him to figure prominently in national affairs before many more years go by.

It is interesting to note that only one member of the House of Representatives has reached the Presidency at the time of his incumbency in the House. That was James A. Garfield of Ohio, who was one of the best examples of the dark horse" candidate which the history of the country affords.

New Jersey Republicans are quite as much at sea as to the platform for the coming gubernatorial campaign as on the selection of their candidate. They are particularly afraid of the exact question. The Bishop's law, with its no-sovereign clause as a guard against Sunday opening, may, they say, cost them the support of some of the strongest Republican counties.

In view of the Palibanks' candidacy it is interesting to note how easily three Vice Presidents have been elected to the Presidency when they had the lower office and none of these since 1836, when Martin Van Buren was the successful standard bearer of the Democratic party. To find the other examples of successful Vice Presidential candidates for the Presidency it is necessary to go back almost to the foundation of the Republic, when John Adams was elected as the successor of George Washington, and when Adams was in turn succeeded by Vice President Jefferson. So too if Vice President Palibanks succeeds in winning the Presidential nomination and election, it would be almost without precedent.

OVERACKER DIES.
The Former Rockwood Newspaper Man Stricken With Brain Paralysis at Rimersburg, Pa.

ROCKWOOD, Aug. 13.—[Special.] Word reached here yesterday morning that Charles F. Overacker, formerly editor of the Rockwood Gazette, had died of paralysis of the brain.

Mr. Overacker at the time of his death was located at Edmersburg, where he edited a weekly paper. T. S. Warner and H. G. Shumaker of this place left this morning to attend the funeral.

MAY BE FOX.

Colored Man Killed at Beatty Waiting Identification at Latrobe.

A colored man, evidently about 40 years of age and thought to be from Uniontown, or some other point in Fayette county, was killed by a train at Beatty Station yesterday. The remains were taken to F. J. Stader's mortuary at Latrobe where they await identification. Coroner Wyntn saw the body and searched the effects.

The only clue to the identity of the colored man is a small piece of paper, upon which is written, rather illegibly, the name of Walter V. Fox. A request is contained on the same paper to notify some one in case of accident, but the address is utterly illegible. The remains will be held for a day or so for identification.

FLOURISHED RAZOR.

West Newton Man Creates Scene in Squire's Office.

WEST NEWTON, Aug. 13.—[Special.]—Charles Bowman was committed to jail today by Justice of the Peace J. C. Stough, charged with felonious assault. Bowman is alleged to have fled three shots at Charles Smith during a quarrel.

While under arrest in the justice's office Bowman drew a razor and attacked the prosecutor. Flushing the razor he made his way to the street, but was overpowered and taken to the lockup.

"Yes?"

"You need not laugh, I am, I am going to form a newspaper trust."

"All right, Walter," rejoined Hammond, who was familiar with Hector's ways. "It is too late for you to begin to-night. Let me know when you are ready to draw up the paper, and I will render you my best services as your attorney. Thus far I have been more successful in organizing trusts than fighting them."

"I will need your services in a short time," said Hector, with some excitement, which Hammond attributed to the wine. "I am not jesting. Of course this is confidential."

"Certainly, I am going to Chicago to-morrow, and will be back in about a week."

"Let me see you when you get back. I shall wish to talk with you." "I will do so. Olive, my dear," said Hammond addressing his sister, "it is time your aged brother was on his way home. I shall ask the permission of the ladies, and of our excellent host to depart, as I have a long journey ahead of me to-morrow—or more properly to-day—it now being past two o'clock."

"You and Walter are as un gallant as you can be," pointed Miss Le Roy, as Mr. Hector gave the signal for the party to disperse. "Just because you have talked all you wish, we must all run along home like good little girls. I am going to give a supper party soon, and it will last until everybody has talked as much as they desire."

"And with this awful threat Miss Le Roy was captured by Mr. Hector and led away to her carriage, nor did her smiling face show that her resentment was deep or lasting.

CHAPTER III.

MR. HECTOR PLANS A NEWSPAPER TRUST.

The morning after the supper Hector appeared at the Record office at an early hour. He looked over his mail, and then wrote a note to Palmer J. Morton, the great financier and railroad magnate, requesting an early interview on a matter of some importance. This off his mind, Hector made the rounds of the office. He chatted awhile with Mr. Chalmers and then drifted into the art department. He was in effervescent spirits, and seemed highly satisfied with all the world. Finally he returned to his room and proceeded to work off the exuberance of his animal spirits by performing a clog step to a lively tune, the words of which he sang with more regard for speed and exact time than for expression:

"There was an old gasser, and he had a wooden leg; no tobacco could he borrow, no tobacco could he beg; another old gasser was as cunning as a fox; and he always had tobacco in his old tobacco box." (Spirited breakdown and repeat.) "Yes, he always had tobacco in his old tobacco box."

As the versatile Mr. Hector paused to contemplate with much satisfaction, the success which had been attained in this terpsichorean diversion, Mr. Chalmers, the managing editor, entered the room.

"By the way, Chalmers," said Hector, as he paced up and down the room, "why wouldn't it be a good scheme to let the women of New York assume entire charge of the Record for a week. Get some well-known society woman to act as editor-in-chief, and advertise for women writers of all kinds. Of course you will have to look after the mechanical and routine part of the paper, but let them collect and write all the stuff. Select young women to report the horse races, prize fights, the police news, the courts and to handle all departments of the paper. They could run just as much or as little foreign and out-of-town stuff as they pleased. They would write all of the editorials and draw all of the pictures. Great scheme—don't you think so?"

Mr. Chalmers said it would probably drive him into an insane asylum, but that it was nothing short of an inspiration. He agreed to outline a plan, and so confer with some progressive women he had in mind.

While they were discussing this project, word was received from Mr. Palmer J. Morton that though very busy he would be pleased to see Mr. Hector about four o'clock that afternoon. The financier was not unacquainted with the erratic correspondence of The Record, and while not in sympathy with the aims or methods of that paper was not inclined to incur hostility by refusing the request made by Hector.

At four o'clock the Hector automobile wheeled in front of a Broadway office building, and a few minutes later the famous correspondent was ushered into the magnate's private office. This apartment was severely plain.

Mr. Morton nodded his head and granted a consent to this injunction, which he evidently regarded as unnecessary.

"I would start this syndicate in a chain of 30 cities, with two papers in each," continued Mr. Hector, who rapidly noted a list. "Here are the cities I have in mind: New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Rochester, Buffalo, Atlanta, New Orleans, Louisville, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis, St. Louis, Omaha, Galveston, Kansas City, Denver, Helena, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles."

Mr. Hector then entered into a detailed and comprehensive explanation of the proposed newspaper trust. He submitted figures showing that 60 papers could be purchased for less than $115,000,000, and proved that these papers were then earning $7,500,000 a year, or more than five per cent, on the required investment. Hector proposed retrenchment in three important departments, viz., the Sunday papers, the editorial staffs, and the abolition of the advertising agency. Instead of preparing 90 Sunday papers, the syndicate would print four, each of surpassing excellence. These four papers would give all syndicate papers in contiguous territory a distinct Sunday paper. Each of these four Sunday papers would have a marked specialty, and each would strongly appeal to a certain class of readers. One would make specialty of announcements; another of literature; the third of fiction, and the fourth of science and art; but each would be a complete magazine. Hector showed that four such Sunday magazines could afford to employ the highest literary and artistic genius of the world, and proved that no competition with them would be possible. The spring would amount to not less than $4,000,000 a year, in the single item of Sunday paper.

The editorial department would be conducted on a similar plan. Instead of 100 editorial writers, as at present, he would have a staff of 20, acknowledged authorities in their respective specialties. The editor-in-chief would keep in touch with the owners of the syndicate, who would thus be able to dictate the thought of the country in the leading republican and democratic papers.

"The reduced expenses of the editorial department will be about $100,000," said Mr. Hector. "You can place your own estimate on the financial benefits your syndicate will receive from being able to inspire and originate the thought of a nation."

Hector then explained how plans could be saved by dealing direct with advertisers without the intervention of the advertising agency, which he characterized as the "most stupid survival of the middleman system." He explained that the agency levied tribute on advertisers and newspapermen, and that an enormous percentage was absorbed by a worthless parasite. Hector said that a staff of ten men could do the work now performed by several thousand.

"The expense of securing advertising will be practically nothing," concluded Hector. "The average rates will be doubled, and we will need a half in a voice that could not be heard ten feet away. Wall Street is all ears. There is good buying now. Begin on 500 share lots. Deal them out at the start, but keep busy selling at least 50,000 shares before you close, no matter what happens. When you have sold 20,000 shares, offer it in 100,000 and 100,000 lots."

The broker repeated the order quickly as there could be no mistake. Mr. Kent remained to the tickers.

"Some one taking profits, short," uttered Mr. Kent as he passed the floor, nervously chewing the end of an unlighted cigar. "I'll show them how to take profits." They must think I am in my second childhood. They have an idea I am going to hold the bag to do them." This is the way they keep their agreement! He rang the bell furiously.

"How much B. & O. have 12?" "Twelve thousand shares at an average of 94," was the reply. "Write Brown & Addy of Boston, to sell me 30,000 B. & O. at the market. Send word to Blase & Co. of Chicago, to sell me 25,000 St. Paul at the market. Rush hurry."

He was at the private telephone again.

"How much Sugar have you 94?" "Twenty two thousand. It has broken a point and a half."

"That's all right. Put it out in 2,000 and 2,000 lots. Sell me 40,000 shares of Metropolitan at the market. Got it? That's right, combyo."

The broker was singing like a sawing machine. Sugar B. & O. St. Paul, Jersey Central, Metropolitan, Steel and Iron and other stocks came out in blocks of from 1,000 to 4,000 and even 5,000 lots. But the market had remarkably well. There was not a cloud in the sky, and the public was smugly itself. But even their giddy optimism could not withstand the impact of the masters' interest which had been selling in hundreds of thousands of shares on successive days during the present session.

"When can I reasonably expect to hear from you?"

"Four or the gentlemen I have invited meet here to-morrow afternoon at a director's meeting," said Mr. Morton, consulting a memorandum. "Later they dine with me at an up-to-date, I will set what they think about it and send you word when I can see you. In the meantime it will be a good idea to reduce your plus to writing. If possible, make an estimate of the amount annually expended by your 60 papers for commissions paid to advertising agencies. Make your figures as comprehensive as possible. I can; let me have this information to-day. I have an engagement at five o'clock."

Mr. Morton arose, closed his eyes and shook hands with Mr. Hector. That gentleman clapped the crowd of clerks who had finished their day's work, descended the marble stairs and stepped into his automobile.

Mr. Morton nodded his head and granted a consent to this injunction, which he evidently regarded as unnecessary.

"I would start this syndicate in a chain of 30 cities, with two papers in each," continued Mr. Hector, who rapidly noted a list. "Here are the cities I have in mind: New York, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Rochester, Buffalo, Atlanta, New Orleans, Louisville, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Indianapolis, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis, St. Louis, Omaha, Galveston, Kansas City, Denver, Helena, Seattle, Tacoma,

STRIKE FEVER GAINS.

Thousands of Telegraph Operators Join Movement to Enforce Demands.

WHOLE COUNTRY NOW INVOLVED

New York, Philadelphia and Other Large Cities Added to Strike List. Business Badly Handicapped by Stoppage of Wire Communication.

Pittsburg Aug 13—Promptly at 6:30 o'clock last evening the word went out that all telegraphers should strike. They did. Every man waiting for the word and it was not five minutes later that in front of the Western Union office where the majority had congregated they came from the keys by twos and threes and fours with the pride of duty done on their faces and the plaudits of their fellows ringing in their ears.

Across the street were the waiting colleagues. Every new man that came from the offices was greeted with a cheer. Two or three of the old time workers emerged with sweat upon their brows and determination on their face and they were embraced. They were the representatives of the early 200 that answered the call.

The men went out at the same hour in both the Western Union and Postal company offices. They will be out today in the same degree as far as employees and officials can see.

Chicago Aug 13—The officials of the Chicago local union declare that they have no more desire to arbitrate the issues of the strike than the Western Union. They made this declaration as soon as they learned of the efforts of the officials of the National Civic Federation to secure intervention again by Commissioner of Labor Small and a reported promise by President Small to send the men back to work if the government will propose to secure arbitration.

All Unions Vote to Strike.

General Secretary Wesley Russell received answers today from many of the 135 local unions throughout this country and Canada to whom he sent requests for a vote on the proposition to call a general strike. All the messages received thus far according to Secretary Russell are in favor of the general strike.

Two of the largest brokerage firms in the city have signed the operators' scale and granted them the closed shop. Late these two firms called a meeting of brokers to consider measures for the prevention of the strike.

General Superintendent Capen of the Postal company said:

We are willing to treat with the strikers as individuals but will not receive any representatives of the strikers as a body. There has been some difficulty with the operators at small stations plugging the wires. We will discipline these men later on. I hired 10 men this morning and some of them were strikers.

The issuing of meal tickets by the operators was commenced.

General Secretary Wesley Russell issued the following call to all local unions to meet immediately prepared to arranging for a general strike.

To all locals C T U A In view of the fact that many of our locals are now on strike you are directed to call a special meeting immediately and take a vote on the following What Telephers Demand

Shall we present to both companies the following demands

1—Eight hour day

2—Fifteen per cent increase

3—Equal pay for equal work by women

4—Companies to furnish type writers

Falling in the above shall a general strike be declared?

Communicate your vote to Chicago by wire immediately. President Small and general executive board will arrange to meet Wednesday night.

Secretary Russell also sent the following bulletin to all locals on strike.

Stand firm and under no circumstances return to work until officially sanctioned. President Small and the general executive board will meet here Wednesday night.

All points are solid as a rock. Our union contracts are being signed by press associations and brokets.

Chicago absolutely closed up. No strike breakers have arrived all resorts to the contrary notwithstanding.

We have the battle won.

New York Badly Crippled.

New York Aug 13—The strike of the telegraph operators which has affected many cities throughout the country was extended to New York when men employed by both the Western Union and Postal companies quit work. The Postal strikers said that 90 per cent of their men were out. The Western Union officials declared that 50 per cent of their day force left their posts. Extra police were called out to preserve order in the vicinity of the telegraph buildings but there was no occasion for their services. The crowds were orderly. The day operators employed in the main office of the Western Union went out at the sound of a whistle blown in the operating room. The day operators in the Western Union branch offices joined the strikers at once.

Columbus O Aug 13—Ten union operators at the Postal Telegraph company are out. Three nonunion telegraphers were at once installed by the management. The Western Union had 10 imported men at work.

Cleveland Aug 13—The telegraph operators of both the Postal and Western Union have joined the strikers.

Philadelphia Aug 13—The union operators in the main office of the Western Union in this city went out at 4:10 p.m. The Postal operators went out at 3:40. There was little evidence of a strike movement among the telegraphers in this city until after the operators in New York went out. The Postal company was the first to feel the effect when two men refused to work with nonunion men in New York. They were immediately discharged and shortly thereafter were dismissed for also refusing to man a New York wire. One man also refused and at 3:40 p.m. Postman Smith of the local union blew the whistle.

Toledo O Aug 13—The telegraphers strike has invaded Toledo. A C Zimmerman who has been operating a Postal wire for a local paper left his work because Peg Randall said he had accepted a position with the Postal. Later the operator employed by the Postal in the product exchange walked out. It is expected that all the union men of the Postal will strike.

Harrisburg Ready to Strike

Harrisburg Pa Aug 13—The telegraphers in the local branches of the Western Union and the Postal telegraph companies refused to take messages from the nonunion operators in New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and served notice on their managers that attempts to compel them to take nonunion messages would be met with a walkout.

Baltimore Aug 13—The entire day force with the exception of the chief and traffic chief quit work. Between 50 and 60 operators were employed at the main office.

Washington Aug 13—At 8:30 last evening all the Western Union operators walked out and were greeted by loud cheers by the striking Postal operators who were lined up in front of the Western Union building. Only the chief operators and a few wiremen remained on duty.

Jacksonville Fla Aug 13—All Western Union and Postal telegraphers walked out last evening. It affects some 60 Western Union and 30 Postal operators.

Dos Molinos La Aug 13—Every union operator of the Western Union and Postal telegraph companies has walked out.

A. P. MEN OUT.

General Manager Stone told of Safely Demands of Key Thumpers

Pittsburg Aug 13—At 8:30 o'clock last evening in obedience to a preconcerted signal the operators of the Associated Press in this city walked out.

New York Aug 13—Many of the telegraph operators employed throughout the country by the Associated Press went out on strike at 8:10 o'clock eastern time last night. All of the night operators in the New York office of the Associated Press are out.

Two of the largest brokerage firms in the city have signed the operators' scale and granted them the closed shop. Late these two firms called a meeting of brokers to consider measures for the prevention of the strike.

REAL BEAR MAKES CALL

Bruin Bears Mighty Hunter at Sagamore Hill

Oyster Bay N.Y. Aug 13—A live bear of whom no one living ever will baptize up his home in the woods on Sagamore Hill and in the early foggy hours he paid a visit to the residence of President Roosevelt.

The trampling of the underbrush near the edge of the cliff knoll on which the President's summer home is situated aroused the bear to activity. With the sloughs went into the woods the bear came boldly into the clearing. When the guard returned to his post after a vain search for the noise he was given another start by hearing scratching on the roof of the house at the rear of the President's home. Upon the roof with the guard man burst he again caused him to stop and pinned him down and ran him over. As he was doing this the bear made over the other end jumping to the ground and running off towards the woods again. The guard had hastily organized the household dogs and surrounded into a hunting party. For three hours the bear lasted from 1 until 6 o'clock when the bear had gone away. His tracks have been carefully guarded and preserved by only as evidence to substantiate the story.

For several days those who are frequent visitors to Sagamore Hill have reported hearing the crackle of twigs as they had gone up the road in the President's grounds and the bear has now fixed that he bear has been living here for some days.

TROOPS FIRE ON MOB

At Belfast, Ireland Two Are Killed and Many Wounded

Belfast, Ireland Aug 13—Sartorius and fatal disorders occurred here again last evening. The troops fired into the crowd and a woman and a man were shot dead and a number of others were seriously wounded. The conflict between the soldiers and the rioters took place in the vicinity of the constabulary barracks in the Cullinane road. The fire began about about 6 o'clock when a mob of men and women attacked a police station. Soldiers were at once summoned to the scene but they were met by a hull of paving stones which resulted in emptying some of the rounds. The riot act was read but the undisciplined mob refused to disperse and kept up a terrific fusillade of stones broken bottles and bricks against the police and military. Both the police and military failed to rout the rioting mob and ultimately the order to fire was given.

The number wounded in the rifle fire and the bayonet charges and other wise injured is very great and the hospitals are overcrowded.

We have the battle won.
